To participate in RAKC events, entrants must read and sign the following.

RAKC and Road America reserve the right to accept or reject entries on an individual basis. Receiving an entry or event advertisement does not constitute acceptance. All forms of racing are inherently dangerous. Each competitor, and their parent, guardian and family, assumes that risk when an individual participates in an event. The risk of serious injury or death cannot be eliminated, and, in fact, will always be present at a high level. Participants are required to advise their families, spouses and next of kin, if any, of this fact. RAKC and Road America are not responsible for the adequacy of a competitor's kart, racing equipment or racing activity.

Please be aware that by submitting this form the applicant acknowledges familiarity with 1) the bylaws of RAKC 2) agrees to abide by RAKC rules pertaining to running events, Briggs & Stratton Motorplex at Road America regulations and any special rules and regulations which are established to cover running events, agreeing, without reservation to the consequences from RAKC resulting for violation of the rules; and 3) renounces the right to have any recourse to any arbiter or tribunal not provided for in the bylaws, and specifically covenants not to file suit, in law or equity for any review of any act or decision of the officers of RAKC, its committees, race chair, and the Briggs & Stratton Motorplex. RAKC reserves the right to refuse entry of any applicant and to reclassify entrants as deemed appropriate.

Publicity Release

As a condition of acceptance, the entrant and/or driver agree to permit RAKC and Road America the use of their voice and the likeness for news, publicity and future use, including radio, TV, Internet and printed media. He/she/they further stipulate that no prior agreement with sponsor or other persons are in conflict with this agreement.
